RACIAL ATTACKS: Stop this futile violence

THE NATIONAL FRONT has launched the second stage of its big Race Campaign with a strong condemnation of racial attacks. Such violence is the understandable and inevitable product of a multi-racist society which forces different races to live on top of each other. But the NF is doing everything it can to defuse this hatred and to show people that a political solution is the only answer to inter-racial strife.

To help do this, the National Front will over the next few weeks distribute hundreds of thousands of leaflets entitled "Racial Attacks – Who Is To Blame." These nail the media lies about alleged NF involvement in racial attacks, and go on to show that peaceful political and cultural action is the only possible effective way of combatting the evils of mass immigration and enforced multi-racism.

Racial attacks by Whites against Blacks and Asians are in fact rare compared with other racially related crimes such as mugging. But the NF believes that they must be condemned all the same, even though the examples of places like Fiji and Sri Lanka show that racial violence is not some special evil peculiar to Whites, but simply the inevitable result of forcing peoples of different races to live next to each other.

The people who are really to blame for racial attacks are the politicians who allowed greedy capitalists and unscrupulous communists to turn Britain into a multi-racist "experiment" in their search for profits or power.

The National Front still maintains that its policy of phased, financially assisted repatriation is the only way to end the steady upward spiral of racial violence. But the leaflet also proposes an imaginative short-term measure to ease the problem.

Precisely because the Movement is known as the only real opponent of the multi-racist society, it is felt that for the National Front to publically condemn racial attacks would have a far greater effect on those youngsters responsible than the bleatings of a thousand liberal race mixers.

So instead of stirring up trouble with groundless lies about "NF racial violence," the mass media should for once act responsibly and give the National Front the chance to condemn the violence which leads to prison sentences for so many frustrated but fundamentally good young men, and to fear for so many innocent families.

NATURAL

Opposition to immigration is natural and fortunately inevitable. But it need not lead to violence. Violence is born of desperation and hopelessness. If those involved can be shown how to work to save their race and nation through political action, then many of them will turn their backs on negative violence.

The National Front is prepared to risk losing some of its traditional support among alienated White youth by taking this positive and constructive course. Are the prostitutes of the Establishment mass media prepared to match our sacrifice by breaking their own false image of our movement and bringing our attitude to the attention of the peoples of Britain?

We doubt it, but will continue on this path in any case, because it is morally and politically correct. Our land can be White once again, but only if our people learn to love their own identity and culture, instead of hating others.

LIBERATION STRUGGLE IN TIBET

IN YET another outburst of the wave of nationalism which is sweeping the world, the long oppression of Tibet at the hands of the Communist Chinese has been highlighted at last.

It is now more than 30 years since the Red Chinese invaded their small and peaceful neighbour, beginning a systematic programme of cultural and racial genocide. Tibetan religious and national traditions were crushed in brutal waves of murder and organized vandalism, and mass immigration by ethnic Chinese has been encouraged in order to destroy the Tibetan identity.

That these policies of Marxist imperialism have failed was shown at the start of October, when Tibetan workers and students defied Chinese machine guns and bayonets to launch a wave of protest riots against their oppressors.

RENEWED STRUGGLE

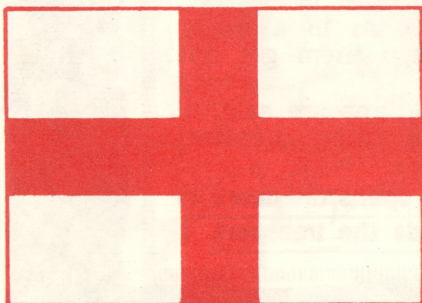

The renewed struggle for national liberation in Tibet provides a good example of the hypocrisy of the Marxists, who preach "liberation" for all small nations – except the ones under their own jackboot. But it also shows the double standards employed by Western powers such as Britain and America. While the Soviet Union is rightly criticized for its occupation of Afghanistan, no-one has suggested that any action should be taken against China for the far longer and far more brutal rape of Tibet.

Instead, trade and arms deals with the Red Chinese are announced all the time as the Zionist media continue to whip up hatred against the white Russians, and as the paranoid Ronald Reagan seeks to encircle Russia with a net of armed hostility. Where these warmongers are concerned, human rights are not an abstract principle which must be applied to all peoples at all times; they are simply a propaganda stick with which to beat their opponents.

'UNITY'

EVERY COUPLE of years, the fringes of Nationalism in Britain stagger from their armchairs to their battered typewriters to tap out a call for what they call "nationalist unity." And every couple of years, the leadership and activists of the National Front reject their overtures. Why is this?

The National Front has been, is, and will remain opposed to any form of alliance with other supposedly 'nationalist' groups in this country. The only nationalist unity which interests us is to have every genuine and worthwhile nationalist involved in the National Front.

GOOD REASONS

There are several good reasons for this. The other, much smaller, groups which exist in Britain today are not groups which have grown up separately from the NF. They are all a direct result of our own history and development. They exist either because we have expelled people from the movement for corruption or lack of discipline, or because they have voluntarily resigned from the NF after finding themselves to be out of tune with our ideological and strategic positions.

To suggest that we should seek "unity" with those who have been expelled for corruption or indiscipline is obviously wrong. And it would be equally wrong and unworkable to try for short-term numerical gain to ally with people with whom we have fundamental disagreements on ideology and strategy. This is not a recipe for lasting success, but for permanent division and perpetual plotting and factional splits. Just because we agree on some principles doesn't mean that we can ignore the massive chasm between us in other equally important social, economic and constitutional questions.

LOYALTY

Above all, a powerful nationalist political fighting machine can only be built on the foundations of loyalty — loyalty to the Idea, and loyalty to the Organization.

Loyalty to the Idea precludes any links with reactionaries who may agree on some basic policies, but who simply do not agree with the National Revolutionary position. And loyalty to the Organization makes it inconceivable that we should seek to unify with splitters and egotists who have already displayed their lack of basic organizational loyalty by breaking away from the NF in the first place, and who only want to return once their own little adventure has flopped.

ESSENTIAL

Since loyalty is so essential to a revolutionary movement, it follows that disloyalty must be punished in order to make it crystal clear that it is unacceptable and not worthwhile. And the only punishment which can have this effect, and so deter future malcontents, is for those who have been disloyal to be shown that as a result they will never be accepted back into the organization and fellowship which they betrayed.

So others may waste their time chasing the Will O' The Wisp of "nationalist unity" if they wish. It will only bring them added divisions and hatreds in any case. But the National Front has more important work to do — building the disciplined and dedicated hardcore organization needed to win power in the next century.

IMPORTANT NOTICE. For more than a year, the National Front has been subjected to massive interference with the post going to and from its main offices. In order to minimize the disruption this State action causes, you are asked to hand in correspondence for every NF operation whenever possible.

If you do have to use the Post Office, always use recorded delivery and keep your receipt safely.

Disgrace

Dear Sir,

The situation at our two major hospitals in Birmingham is an absolute disgrace. Over 150 beds are being closed while people have to wait longer and longer for vital treatment. The Tory government say that there is no money and one of their M.P.'s (Jill Knight) has even suggested in our local paper that people should raise money themselves through a lottery.

There is something I do not understand. Why do British governments, both Labour and Tory, continue to send billions of pounds abroad in foreign aid, etc, yet at the same time turn round to the British taxpayer and tell him or her that hospital beds must close because there is not enough money? The phrase

"charity begins at home" comes across in my mind.

I would be very grateful to hear your views and comments on this.

Yours,

J.P., Birmingham.

A protest march in London against cuts

EDITOR'S REPLY: We quite agree that this is an outrage. There is something very sick about a nation which is too busy poking its nose into other people's affairs to look after its own sick and needy folk at home. As Nationalists we believe that the first duty of any British government should be to look after the interests and health of the British people.

But while we wouldn't want to encourage gambling, there is a lot to be said for community efforts to help fund local hospitals. It is unhealthy for people to come to rely on the State for everything, because reliance is the mother of slavery.

In the future Nationalist Britain, far more funds will be made available to the Health Service, but we believe that communities which wish to raise extra funds themselves should be encouraged to do so, perhaps by having whatever they raise matched by an additional grant of government funds.

Expose our M.P.

Dear Sir,

I would like to expose our M.P., John Home Robertson (Labour) who is doing nothing about the growing wave of violence in our town.

Violence is spreading every day in Tranent, yet it is never in the local papers. Stabbings are now common. One of my friends was slashed on the face a couple of weeks back. Another was threatened and a large knife put to his throat.

Worst of all was when a couple of youths were in the 'Brig' public house and one went to the toilet and cut his own face. He came out and told his friend that some-one in the pool-room had slashed him. He then pulled out a sawn-off shotgun and threatened to shoot them if the man who slashed his friend did not own up!

It's not too hard to imagine what could have happened. Yet none of this violence even gets in our local papers and our M.P., like everyone else with power here, does nothing.

Tranent is only a small town, yet violent crime is rife. Please print this in NF News to help expose Robertson and the rest of the local bigwigs who refuse to help ordinary people who have to live with fear.

Keep up the good work, we will win in the end!

Yours in the Cause,

W.B.,

Tory Hypocrisy

Dear Sirs,

I enclose an editorial comment from the Sun newspaper.

After reading it several times, I nearly convinced myself that it was a misprint!

Here we have a Tory comic agreeing with repatriation — or at least that is my interpretation. The Sun explains how the Asians took over commerce and then eventually took over government. Unless we see a National Revolution here, surely the same thing will one day happen in our country!

Yours

J.P.,
Birmingham.

Dear NF News,

Many thanks for the new-look issue 95. I thought the decision to remove the Union Jack from the masthead indicative of new progressive thinking. It showed courage of conviction — well done!

The Harp flag was a bit of a shock at first, but here we found that rather than repelling potential buyers, it forced them to rethink their views of the NF and to want to know more. I wonder what reaction you got else where and whether this will be permanent?

Looking forward to the next issue.

Yours,

D.
Bushmills,
Co. Antrim.

Whose home?

SUPPOSE you found yourself a stranger in your own home.

That is what has happened to the Fijians.

For thousands of years they were the only inhabitants of a Pacific paradise.

Then, 200 years ago, came the Europeans.

The British seized the islands.

They opened the way to floods of Asian migrants to work the plantations and run small businesses.

Now, in a majority, the Asians not only dominate commerce but have taken over the government.

Loyalty

When as a final act of desperation an army colonel seizes control, he is denounced by the Queen, by Sir Geoffrey Howe and virtually all the Commonwealth for an illegal, disloyal act.

Maybe it was illegal.

But where did obedience and loyalty get the people of Fiji?

Britain placed them in a mess. Our duty is to help them get out of it.

Thousands of Indians are said to wish to return to their ancestral homeland.

If Premier Gandhi opens the doors to them, we can provide the transport.

FRONT-LINE ACTION

NEW DEVELOPMENT IN ULSTER

ON September 17th, the National Front contested its first Ulster by-election for over 10 years. At the end of the day, only 27 first preference votes were recorded for our candidate. Why is this so in an area where the Movement has great potential?

The most striking impression that our election workers were left with was the apathy that they met on the doorsteps. As we have pointed out before in NF News, the old Unionist leadership has betrayed the confidence formerly put in them by the Ulster people. A number of young and idealistic Ulsterfolk are joining our movement and fighting for Ulster's freedom and for social justice. Others are involving themselves in the Campaign for Equal Citizenship or the Movement for Self-Determination.

However, most ordinary Loyalists feel let down by the Unionist establishment's broken promises and rulerless leadership. It is hardly surprising then that 80% of the Newtownabbey electorate stayed at home on voting day. At one polling station in the heart of the fiercely Loyalist Rathcoole estate, only 16% of the electorate thought it worthwhile to go out and vote.

DUP HAMMERED

The result was a resounding slap in the face for Ian Paisley's 'Democratic' Unionist Party, which lost one of its council seats to Labour. At the first count in the PR election, neither DUP man reached the quota necessary for outright election. In 1985, a DUP man topped the poll with over 3 times the quota.

It is clear that the DUP is on the way out in Newtownabbey. Our task is not to reach the small hardcore of DUP voters who turned out this time, but to convince the 80% who stayed at home that they have a real alternative to the discredited Unionist old guard.

To do this, Newtownabbey NFN Supporters will be stepping up our political profile in the coming months. We have learned many valuable lessons for the future in this by-election. They will be put into practice well before the next local government elections in May 1989.

* FREE PHOTOCOPIER. The BLACKPOOL NFN Sales Unit has a spare Rank Xerox copier. As a sign of comradeship, they will give this copier to the most deserving unit which does not have one. If you feel that your unit could make good use of it, write direct to the Blackpool unit (see Contact List) stating why you think your unit should be the one to receive this free copier.

WEST MIDLANDS

A SLOW but steady rebuilding of the National Front in the West Midlands is now under way. A number of NF News Supporters and Friends of the Movement have joined in recent months.

They have begun regular paper sales and have started an effective letter writing campaign to local newspapers, as the example here shows. It is hoped that a properly established unit will be set up by the end of the year as a result.

Dear Sir,

Although I have a high regard for your paper, I must say I found one article highly amusing to say the least. It came under the heading "Stop Press". Is this a joke? You informed us of Mr. Francis Maude's opposition to the quarry at Coleshill. I suggest it should of come under the heading "Very late involvement due to someone giving him a nudge." One anti-quarry campaigner said he was glad someone had taken notice after six months. It seems everyone had taken notice apart from the man certain people had voted for to "represent" us. Is he in the same world as us? Does he live in Westminster? Who knows!

This latest Tory joke just goes to show what a shambles of a government that solid 42 per cent of the nation voted in. It is another clear argument for decentralization, instead of our people being dictated to by a bunch of fat-cat politicians from London.

The best way to describe our nation today is like this, DIVIDED U.S. SATELLITE STATE HAVING 55 MILLION PEOPLE "REPRESENTED" BY 650 MP'S AND RULED BY ABOUT 380 OF THEM.

Its all a sick joke. (Nationalist), WATER ORTON.

They're singing in the Valleys

THE NF is making its most determined effort ever to get properly established in Cymru. The main growth so far is in the south, where the dynamic Caerdydd sales team has also won sympathy, recruits and widespread publicity in several other towns in the Valleys.

But the committee also aim to break into the Welsh speaking areas further north. Twenty percent of the membership is already Welsh speaking and young English speakers in the south are being taught their beautiful ancient language by a member of the Caerdydd committee.

The new masthead of NF News has gone down very well, because the old front page used a flag which has nothing Welsh about it and which is seen by many patriotic Welsh people as being a symbol of long years of cultural and economic oppression by the Westminster Establishment. The presence of the Red Dragon - Y Ddraig Goch - on our front cover has had an immediate effect on sales.

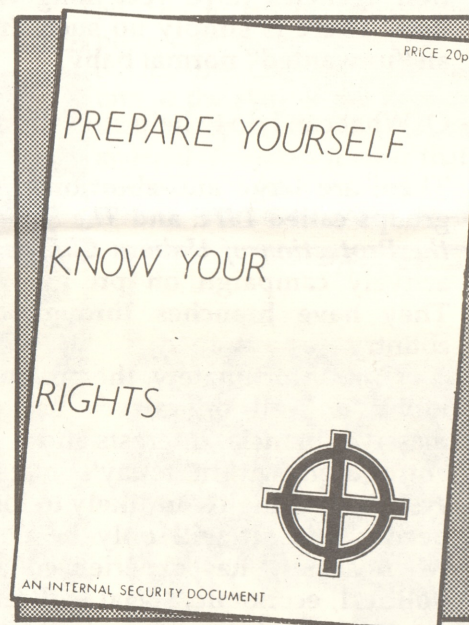

With so much of the country made up of sadly depopulated countryside and villages, it will be an uphill struggle to establish a truly nationwide National Front organization in Cymru, but a good start is now being made.

NORTH WEST

THIS USEFUL little booklet has been produced by Blackpool NFN Supporters. It gives a complete list of all officials who may have a right to enter your home, and the circumstances under which they may do so.

Originally produced as an internal security guide, it has been decided that it would also be valuable to many members of the public. Pensioners in particular are at risk from cruel con-men and burglars who gain entry to their homes by posing as bogus officials and claiming that they have the right to come in.

It can be obtained direct from the unit. Send 40p (incl. p&p) to: Blackpool NF, PO Box 12, Lytham St. Annes, FY8 5QR.

THE NORTH WEST Region is the latest to set up a 24 hour National Front Contact Line to enable enquirers and members of the public in need of advice or help to contact the NF as quickly as possible.

The number is 0253 751586 and will always appear in the NFN Contact List from now on, as well as on all local publicity material produced in the North West.

The phone is based in Blackpool, where our Supporters unit recently received publicity when they invited extreme "left-wingers" in the town for the TUC conference to a meeting to discuss real NF policies.

The idea for the meeting came after regular NF News sellers had several heated arguments with visiting Reds trying to sell their own papers in the town centre. The NF's North West Political Officer told our reporter:

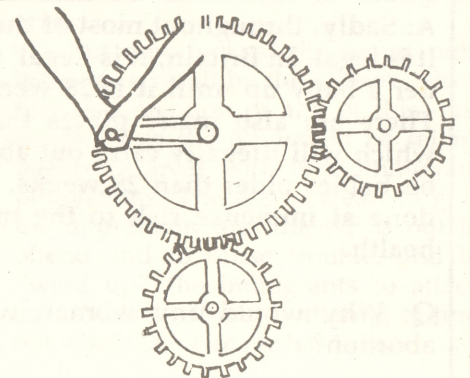

"I found them to be extremely worried by the NF - not only physically, but even more so politically. They can't argue with our policies, they are stumped by our far-sightedness and confused by our condemnation of Race bigots."

"Among their numbers there are some who could clearly be won over and who would be an asset to us. Therefore I believe that a decisive attempt should be made to penetrate the dross of the Red camp to reach these intelligent few and convince them that Revolutionary Nationalism is the only way for Britain."

WHAT IS TO BE DONE?

THIS COLUMN is specially designed to keep all NF officials well informed of forthcoming activities and to remind them of what needs to be done over the next two weeks.

All NF officials and activists must therefore make it a top priority to read this column carefully each issue, and then to act on the information.

* SECURITY BOOKLETS. Essential reading. Two vital booklets on security are now available. These are required reading for all cadres, candidates and officials of Supporters units.

Dealing with Repression & Internal Security is the first in the series and costs 50p incl. p&p from PO Box 57, Romford, Essex, RM7 9BG. Part 2 - On the Attack deals with the gathering of information by revolutionaries. This also costs just 50p from the same address.

* ORGANIZING A UNIT - A vital NF booklet. This neatly produced booklet is essential reading for all officials of NF News Supporters units, and for anyone who is interested in setting up a unit in their own area.

It costs just 50p incl. p&p from PO Box 57, Romford, Essex, RM7 9BG. Supporters who buy a copy and feel that they can do what is required to set up a local unit should then contact the Administration Department at the same address for more information and advice.

* REMEMBRANCE DAY. Push for maximum attendance. All units must now have distributed the leaflets advertising this year's traditional activity. Committees must now make it their top priority to arrange transport and to collect deposits in order to ensure the largest possible turn-out from their area.

Flags and unit banners (for display after the Cenotaph service) must be cleaned, overhauled or acquired as necessary. All units should bring at least their national flag and a Union Jack flag.

Bulletins must remind members and supporters of local transport details, and of the need for clean and smart clothes and disciplined behaviour.

The stewards will not hesitate to remove any undesirables from the march.

All units should hold a full meeting a few days before Remembrance Sunday, in order to get maximum attendance, to collect final deposits, and to take a collection from those who will not be going, to give as a unit donation at the rally at the end of the day.

Every cadre, candidate and unit official is required to attend this high point of the National Front calendar.

* WANTED - Computer advice. If any reader using Wordstar or Wordstar 1512 software has managed to find a way to get the pounds sterling sign to print, please contact us immediately through the National Contact line. The problem is that this software was initially marketed in America and the makers haven't bothered to adapt it fully for Britain. Can anyone help?

ABORTION: THE NATIONAL

Question: What is "Abortion"? Answer: Abortion is a fancy term for an operation in which a pregnant woman allows a doctor (or some other person) to kill her unborn baby. In other words, abortion is the murder of innocents, and as such it is intrinsically evil.

Q: Is that legal?

A: Sadly, throughout most of the world it is legal. In Britain, it is 'legal' to murder a baby up until it is 28 weeks old. There are also many places that exist which will illegally carry out abortions on babies older than 28 weeks. This is done at immense risk to the mother's health.

Q: Why would any woman want an abortion?

A: Women choose abortions for many reasons. Some feel that they can't afford to support the child financially. Some are unmarried teenage girls. Some just don't want a baby because it would be "too much bother" or would interfere with their careers or social lives.

In a decadent society such as ours, where the self-interest ethic is the norm, it is not surprising that abortion is used as a form of contraception. Materialist society has bred this mentality within our people.

Q: What happens during an abortion?

A: It depends on how far advanced the pregnancy is. In the first few weeks, the baby is sucked out of the mother with a vacuum tube which tears the unborn child apart, or it is sliced to pieces with a sharp knife. At 16 weeks, the baby is poisoned with a salt solution which is injected into the womb. At 24 weeks, abortion is just like a Caesarian delivery – except that after being cut from its mother, the baby is dumped in a bucket and left to die.

Abortion always means the destruction of a genetically unique individual. It also means a risk to the mother's health, both physical and mental. Abortion can lead to sterility, future miscarriages, still births, deep guilt and even suicide.

Q: Doesn't a woman have the right to decide if she wants an abortion or not? Surely she has the right to control her own body?

A: Yes, a woman has the right to control her own body. But that does not mean that she has the right to take the life of another human being – in this case her unborn baby. Furthermore, Nationalists do not believe that anyone has the right to put their own selfish interests before the good of their people as a whole.

Q: At what point does an unborn baby become a 'full' human being?

A: At the moment of conception. Although an unborn baby takes time to develop physically inside the womb – as a child continues to do after it is born – humans possess a soul from the moment of conception.

Q: What about unusual cases such as rape victims who become pregnant or when massive deformity is discovered in the early stages of pregnancy?

A: Most Nationalists believe that abortion must be permitted under these extreme circumstances if the mother wishes, when it must be regarded as a sad necessity.

Q: But what if a mother cannot cope with the child or if there is a justifiable reason why she cannot look after a baby?

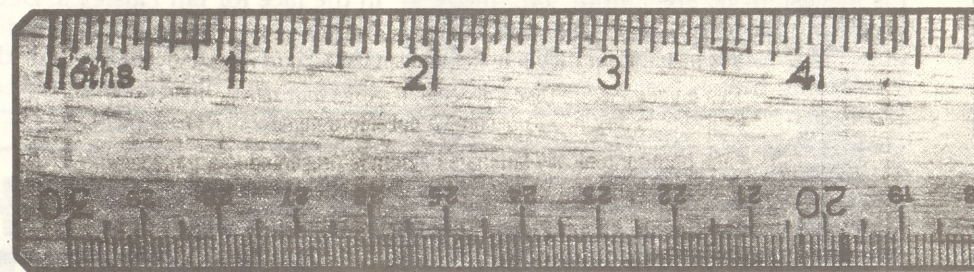

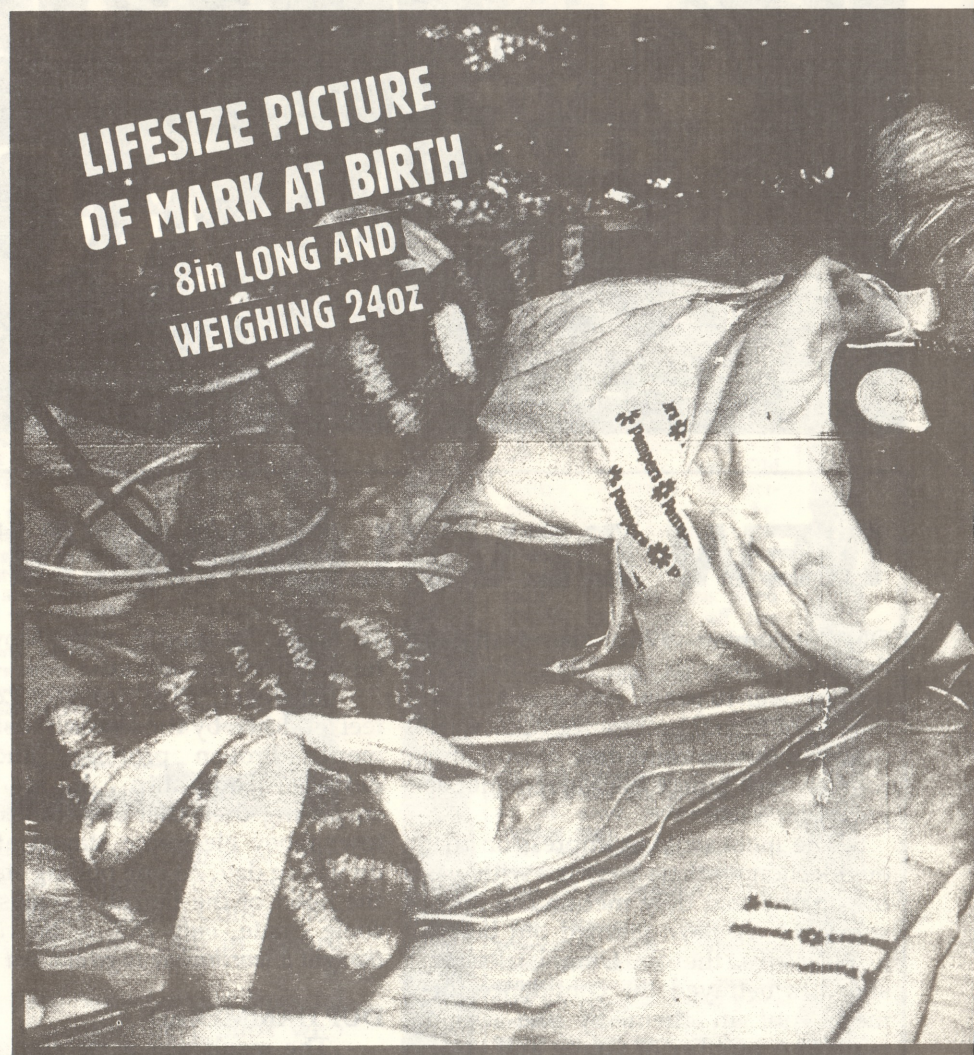

A: She should put the baby up for adoption. There are thousands of couples who unfortunately cannot conceive and are desperate to adopt children. Adoption agencies have very long waiting lists. There is simply no such thing as an "unwanted" normal baby.

Q: What can I do to help stop abortions?

There are large anti-abortion pressure groups called LIFE and The Society for the Protection of Unborn Children who actively campaign on pro-life issues. They have branches throughout the country.

But unfortunately, the pro-abortion lobby is well organized, backed by massive financial interests and is firmly entrenched within today's materialist system. It is highly unlikely to lose this deadly grip. It will only be defeated when society has experienced a total political, economic, social, cultural and spiritual revolution, based upon natural, as opposed to artificial, laws and values.

The only political and social movement in these islands which fully embraces this concept of total revolution is the National Front. This is why, if you really want to build a better land for our people, your place is with us – the Movement of the Future.

THE YOUNG baby, Mark Thomasson, pictured above, who appeared in Sunday magazine, was born at 23 weeks – 5 weeks before the 'legal' limit in which abortions can be carried out.

This is by no means unusual and, furthermore, a young child of this age is likely to survive. For instance, in Bristol Maternity Hospital, in 1984, 72% of liveborn babies born between 22 and 27 weeks gestation survived.

Yet millions just like them have been murdered. This is the horrific truth behind abortion – the greatest and most fundamentally evil holocaust that the world has ever seen.

The murder of innocents in the British Isles was 'lawfully' begun in 1967 by the Liberal Party leader, David Steel. Steel's 'Abortion Act' was passed by a two-to-one majority at Westminster and the Queen gave it her Royal Assent on 27th October 1967. This opened the doors to a holocaust which coldly murders young children at a present rate of one every three minutes in these islands.

Over two and a half million unborn children have been 'legally' murdered in Britain in the last 20 years. This hideous Slaughter of the Innocents is against all humanity and against Natural Law. It must be opposed vigorously.

WORLD
leaflet campaign

OLDHAM'S council for racial equality have slammed the town's National Front after the organisation announced that they would start an intense leafletting campaign in the borough.

In a statement issued by the NF on Tuesday they say: "Oldham NF intend to start our campaign by the intensive leafletting of schools, youth clubs and shopping centres."

"We will also continue with door-to-door paper sales, this will include areas with high immigrant populations."

A spokesman from OCRE slammed the move adding: "I find the leafletting of schools particularly offensive."

IN A recent issue, we highlighted the way in which the press distorts the NF's image, either by telling lies about the movement, or by failing to give coverage to the truth.

The media reaction to the National Front's positive new Race campaign falls mainly into the latter category. Many journalists at both national and local levels have expressed a great interest in the NF message and our support for Black and Asian groups who, like us, oppose multi-racism. But when it has come to the crunch, very few have had the courage to report this extremely newsworthy campaign.

There have been some exceptions, notably a major article in City Limits, but after a few initial snippets, the media seem to have erected a wall of silence around an NF message which could actually help to reduce racial tension and help cut racial attacks by showing alienated youths that there is a peaceful political solution to the problems of multi-racism.

HATRED

At least one paper has gone even further in its attempt to discredit the NF and to stir up racial hatred. The press release reprinted here was sent out by the Oldham NFN Supporters unit at the start of the Race campaign with samples of all the campaign material. It makes it clear that the NF message is aimed at Blacks as well as Whites, which is why the literature would be distributed in immigrant areas.

But now look at the report published as a result by the Oldham Advertiser. No mention of any of this, just the fact that the NF would be selling papers in areas with high immigrant populations. The aim is clear: to give the impression that the NF is out to offend and to cause trouble, and to "wind up" the immigrants to attack our activists without bothering to find out what the NF really has to say.

HIDING THE TRUTH

By hiding the truth, the press are creating racial hatred and putting back the day when the different races agree to go their separate ways in peace. It was the Rastafarian singer Jah Shaka who commented some years back that "if I could talk with the leaders of the National Front it would solve a lot of problems." The leadership then was too arrogant and bigotted to want to know, but times, and the NF, have changed.

We believe that the multi-racial experiment which has changed the face of Britain has failed and must be reversed. But we want to see this done through peaceful discussion and cooperation, rather than by violent confrontation. If the media would make this clear, it too would "solve a lot of problems," but they will not, which is why our 1987 Race campaign will go on.

Don't forget their Sacrifice

WITH OUR main fund-raising drive in recent months being for the Technology Fund, the Nationalist Welfare Association has been somewhat neglected of late. But our activists are still being fined and even imprisoned, and money is still needed to help pay their defence costs, fines or to help their families if they are gaoled.

Please help the N.W.A. to help these people by sending whatever you can afford to PO Box 228, Manor Park, London E.12.

And if you cannot afford to help, at least make the time to drop a short letter of support to Kev Turner, our imprisoned Consett stalwart and lead-singer of White Noise band Skullhead. Write or send a card to: Kev Turner, HMP Acklington, Morpeth, Northumberland.

ECONOMIC RECOVERY An imported fallacy

FURTHER ALARMING evidence of the shallow nature of the Tories' so-called "economic recovery" emerged at the end of last month with the news that Britain's balance of trade in goods and services plunged into a record deficit of £929 million in August.

The main reason for this is that imports of manufactured goods have now exactly doubled since 1979, while exports of similar goods have only increased by one fifth. Manufactured imports have swollen by 7% in the last three months alone.

What has happened is that Maggie Thatcher's election winning credit boom has encouraged millions of people to get even deeper into debt to buy consumer goods such as videos, hi-fi's and cars. And in all these areas, British firms are being knocked out of the market by unfair foreign competition, particularly from Far East companies heavily backed by their own governments.

The realization that the economy is running into such dangerous difficulties shook even the financial parasites of the City of London. More than £7 billion was wiped off share values alone in a single day.

All this is unnecessary. If British industry was protected by tariffs on foreign goods which could be made by our own workers, then the money — and jobs — currently flooding abroad would be kept in Britain to benefit our workers and our industry. But there is no chance of such common sense Nationalist measures being introduced by the most internationalist and pro-capitalist government by which this country has ever had the misfortune to be ruled.

This is part of a series of articles researched and written by the Security Department of the National Front, detailing the history and purpose of Searchlight magazine.

EXPOSING THE HATEMONGERS

★ SEARCHLIGHT'S HEROES ★

THE "investigative journalists" who work for Searchlight magazine have picked some strange role models and heroes for the few young and naive individuals who still believe what they read in this inaccurate rag.

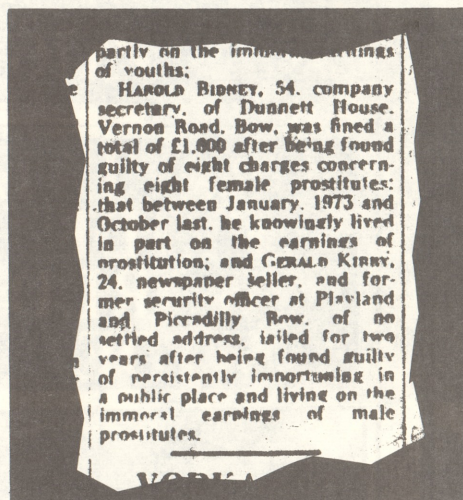

In the June 1987 edition of Searchlight, Harry Bidney's "long and honourable life fighting fascism and racism" was described. Long his life may have been, but was it honourable? Read the facts and judge for yourself.

The cutting reproduced here details Bidney's conviction for living off the earnings of a prostitute. He was fined a total of £1,600 after being found guilty on eight charges concerning female prostitution. The cutting is taken from the Daily Telegraph of the 6th August 1977.

This pimp was in court styled the "company secretary" of Calderhead Investments, headed by one David Calderhead. Calderhead was gaoled for, on his own admission, attempting to procure a 16 year old boy to commit an act of gross indecency with homosexual Bidney. He was also fined like the latter for living off the immoral earnings of prostitutes.

THUGGERY AND BUGGERY

Calderhead had an all-night cafe, the Coffee Pot, in Berwick Street, Soho, which was a centre for homosexual activity. Other meeting places of Bidney and his 62 Group of Zionist thugs were the Limbo Club at 11 War-dour Mews — a haunt of drug addicts later renamed the Casino Coffee Club — and the Alphabet Club in Gerard Street.

Calderhead has acted as a financial backer for a number of groups who have employed terror tactics against Nationalists, including the 62 Group and the misnamed "Anti-Nazi League."

His main legitimate business interest is now Calderhead Wholesale Distributors Ltd, Brewers, of 14 Rushworth Street, London SE1. Telephone numbers 01 261 1495 & 1529. This firm delivers soft drinks and alcohol to a number of restaurants including the Wimpy chain in London using non-unionized labour on cheap rates.

SOHO VICE BOSS JAILED

A RICH businessman was jailed at the Old Bailey yesterday for persistently soliciting on behalf of male prostitutes in what the Judge described as the West End "meat rack." He was also fined £4,500 for living off the earnings of female prostitutes.

DAVID CALDERHEAD, 39, company director, of The Beches, Effingham Road, Lee Green, Lewisham, was jailed for 18 months after admitting soliciting and attempting to procure a 16-year-old boy to commit an act of gross indecency with another man.

He was fined after being found guilty of six charges of living off the immoral earnings of women.

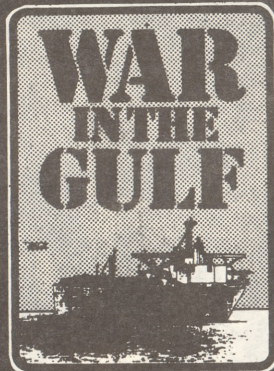

Mr KENNETH RICHARDSON, prosecuting said Calderhead, whose soft drinks firm had an annual turnover of £200,000, used his cafe, the Coffee Pot in Berwick Street, Soho, as the centre for homosexual activities.

He toured the streets in a maroon Bentley and was regularly seen taking a youth into his office in Denmark Street. He also owned flats used by female prostitutes.

Market there

Judge ALEXANDER KARMEL, Q.C. spoke of youths from the provinces who came to the West End to sell themselves. "They know there is a market for them and they get on the 'meat rack' and they can make a considerable amount of money in operating on it," he said.

FACHTON O'SULLIVAN, 26, a

THE GULF WAR continues to threaten to spill over into a much wider and even bloodier conflict as the capitalist and communist super-powers meddle in a quarrel that has nothing to do with them.

No-one with an ounce of humanity can do other than wish for an end to the slaughter of so many young Iraqis and Iranians in the seven year war. But no-one with an ounce of sense can expect Iran to accept the United Nations cease-fire proposals, or Ronald Reagan's attempts to impose peace with overwhelming armed force.

For both of these efforts to interfere with the activities of sovereign states ignore one simple set of facts: it was Iraq which started the war by invading Iran. It was Iraq which started the tanker war in the Gulf, and it is Iraq which is continuing that aspect of the conflict in the hope that Iranian counter-attacks will lead to the total closure of the Gulf. This is because Iraq has a land pipeline for her oil exports, while Iran relies on Gulf shipping for a large proportion of her national income.

Under these circumstances it is absurd to expect Iran to agree to a peace settlement which does not at least acknowledge that Iraq is the guilty party. The fact that Reagan and the U.N. will not accept this is clear evidence that their pressure for peace has very little to do with humanitarianism. It is simply an attempt to break the Islamic revolution in Iran before its example detonates an explosion of anti-American and anti-Soviet feeling in the Middle East.

Islamic Nationalism is a threat to communism, capitalism and zionism.

Organizing A Unit.

THE THIRD in the fast growing series of NF training booklets has just been produced. This well laid-out and very readable guide to setting up and running a National Front News Supporters Unit is long overdue and will prove very useful to new and established officials alike.

It is divided into five main sections: Forming a Committee; Duties of the Organizer, Secretary and Treasurer; and The Committee Meeting. Each section is in turn neatly sub-divided. So, for example, the Duties of a Treasurer gives a good set of guidelines for anyone holding this most important position. It covers opening a bank account; keeping accounts; giving financial reports; paying bills, and a good section on all-important fund-raising techniques.

The booklet is produced by the Education and Training Department. Its aim is summed up in the slogan on the back cover: "Plan, Agitate, Build!" This guide will help every unit do just that.

Organizing a Unit is available for 50p incl. p&p from PO Box 57, Romford, Essex, RM7 9BG. Send for your copy today.

Fiji

THE CONTINUING crisis in Fiji is an object warning of the perils of mass immigration and the imperialism which usually causes it.

The problem which led to the coup d'état by Colonel Rabuka is that native Fijians are now outnumbered in their own land by the descendants of Indian immigrants taken there as cheap labour in the days of the British Empire. The coup is the last desperate attempt by the Fijians to prevent their own culture, identity and political rights from being swamped by the alien influx and high birthrate. It is this concern that has led Col. Rabuka to vow to maintain power until constitutional change guarantees his people the right to rule their own country.

The attempt by the Queen, as head of the fictitious and useless Commonwealth, to interfere in the politics of Fiji and to impose a multi-racist tyranny on the native people, is outrageous. It has rightly angered nationalists and racialists all over the world, as well as enraging the more traditional opponents of imperialism (meddling in other peoples' affairs and seeking to dominate their government).

It is worrying that Col. Rabuka's coup has at present halted the move by Fiji towards rejecting the U.S. nuclear presence in the South Pacific, but overall, nationalists in Britain must welcome moves by any nation and race to adopt the policies for genetic and cultural survival which we also demand for our own folk.

Three superb new light aircraft designed in Britain face probable scrapping unless the government steps in to provide help to get them into full production and to ensure that the RAF can afford to buy them.

The Slingsby T67M Firefly, the Trago Mills SAH-1, and the revolutionary AVR Super 2, would between them give Britain a world lead in the light aviation industry. The AVR Super 2 in particular is a product of the kind of small business which the Tories are supposed to favour, but the government has done nothing to help its designer, Mr. Richard Noble, get through the difficult stage between prototype and large scale manufacture.

Innovative engine design brings the production cost of the Super 2 down to 29,000, compared with 35,000 for an American built Cessna 152. And its hourly operating cost is also lower than its U.S. rival.

STATE AID

In almost any other country, state aid would be provided to get such a promising design into full production straight away. At the very least, steps are needed to ensure that the Americans are not allowed to launch a price war by dumping their own inferior aircraft on the British market at unrealistically low prices in order to strangle the small British company producing the Super 2.

But for all their talk, the Tories are the creatures of Big Business and the largely American multi-national companies. The chances of them stepping in to help small British industry and to protect British jobs are few and far between.

If the men and women of technical genius in this country want to see a government which actively encourages and rewards technological advance, then they will have to look further than the short-sighted capitalist greed of the Tory party.

Scargill helps bosses impose repressive Code

THE MARXIST influenced NEC, the governing body of the National Union of Mineworkers, has rejected calls from militant miners to step up action against British Coal's new disciplinary code.

The calls from Kent, Durham and Nottinghamshire were totally rejected by the NUM politburo, to the miners' surprise and disbelief.

The new disciplinary code puts horrific and totally unjust restrictions on the conduct of miners, both in and out of working hours. Many miners must now be questioning the sincerity of Scargill & co. in respect to their rights and the welfare of the mining communities — and not before time.

It will be remembered that during the strike, it was rumoured that Scargill and friends had given their backing to coal imports from the Communist government in Poland.

Although most miners dismissed these claims as propaganda aimed at weakening solidarity during the mammoth strike, many militants must now be questioning where their leaders' loyalties lie.

Miners must not forget the heart-break of losing the just struggle of '84 and the bitter betrayal by scabs. There is and can only be one way to defend our rights, our families and our future. That way is solid, militant action.

The overtime ban must be escalated quickly, firmly and effectively.

WE SHALL REMEMBER NATIONAL FRONT REMEMBRANCE DAY PARADE SUNDAY 8th NOVEMBER 1987

Assembly Point: BRESSENDEN PLACE (opposite London Victoria BR Station).
Form-up: 2.30 pm. MARCH-OFF 3 pm SHARP!

The National Front will be holding its traditional Remembrance Day march and rally in central London on Sunday 8th November.

This will take place as usual in spite of the refusal of the Metropolitan Police to answer requests by the NF's ruling Directorate for the normal meetings to finalize the details of the activity. As the police have adopted this short-sighted policy, the National Front will be following the usual arrangements which have made the parade a dignified and peaceful activity for many years.

The march will be led by members of the NF Directorate, including Derek Holland, Graham Williamson, Patrick Harrington and Nick Griffin. A wreath will be laid at the Cenotaph by the Chairman of the National Front's Directorate, Mr. Derek Holland.

Any attempt by the police to interfere with our traditional rights will be rejected. The non-political parade, the short religious service at the Cenotaph, and the political rally at the end of the activity, will all go ahead regardless of possible State bans, police harassment or violent attacks by Communist thugs.

But such Nationalist defiance is only possible if every National Front supporter is there with us, demonstrating the determination of patriots from England, Scotland, Wales and Ulster to honour the War Dead of our Nations.

OUR FOREFATHERS DIED TO PROTECT OUR FREEDOM —
MARCH WITH US TO PROTECT YOURS!

A Third Way Beyond Capitalism and Communism

FIGHT FOR A NEW ULSTER

IF THE TREACHEROUS Anglo-Irish Agreement has had one beneficial effect on life in Ulster, it must surely be the fresh political debate which it has stimulated within the Loyalist community over where our future lies. All sections of the community have been involved in this far-reaching discussion. It is agreed that the stark choices confronting Ulster are: total integration with the British State; total independence from the British State, or total surrender.

The growing realization of this position can be seen in the dramatic gains currently being made by the Campaign for Equal Citizenship (CEC) and the National Front.

These gains have been made at the expense of the totally discredited Unionist "leadership" — amongst whom the dominant mood is now one of total surrender. In spite of their impressive threats at the outset of the campaign against the Diktat, their bark has proved to be far worse than their bite.

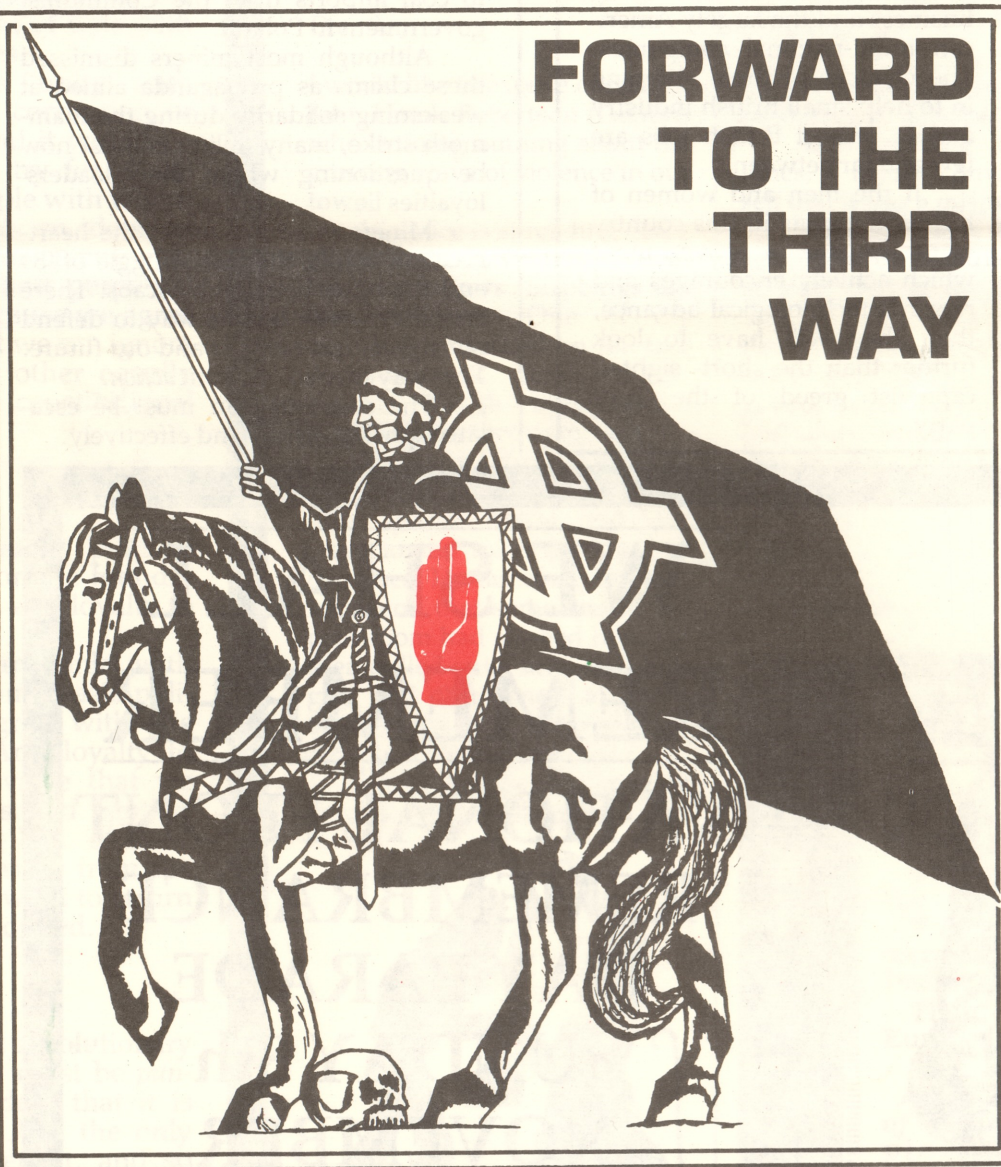

Now they have crawled back with their tails between their legs to engage in the sinister farce of "talks about talks" with the same faceless Whitehall bureaucrats who initially encouraged Thatcher in her treachery!

STERILE

Is it therefore surprising that Paisley and Molyneux — clinging as they are to their lifeline of sterile, stagnating sectarian politics — are in danger of being engulfed by a tide of popular disgust and discontent? Ulster folk prize their heritage, their unique cultural identity and their Nation too highly and have made too great a sacrifice to surrender them now.

For years, "No Surrender" has been the slogan of reactionary Unionists. Now it is the sentiment which will sweep them away.

Taken at face value, the CEC would appear to be an attractive and new organization with excellent ideas to bring "real politics" to Ulster. Yet when one looks beyond the barrage of rhetoric sustained by the army of CEC letter writers in the press, one finds an amazing lack of political realism in their thinking.

Primarily, the whole idea is that someday the big mainland parties will suddenly decide to abandon their entrenched position and to enter the political fray in Ulster. This is, to say the least, rather optimistic. Even if they did, would a handful of Ulster MP's really be able to alter the despicable and undemocratic attitude of the big mainland parties towards Ulster?

And given the anti-Ulster stance of all the major mainland parties, is it really desirable to extend their influence to Ulster and so render us even more vulnerable to their treacherous whims?

WRONG MEDICINE

In many ways the CEC resembles a bright young doctor who, having correctly identified and diagnosed an illness, then proceeds to prescribe the wrong medicine. For, as more and more Ulsterfolk are coming to realize, total independence from the British State is the only effective cure for the crippling political, social and economic illness that has afflicted Ulster for years.

This illness is the result of several factors — Westminster misrule; Irish imperialism in the form of the Eire government and the murdering IRA, and blind sectarianism within our own community, fostered by both the Unionist and so-called "Nationalist" Establishments. Ulster can only return to full health when these factors are eradicated — and this can only be done in an independent nation. In the New Ulster, outside interference in our affairs — be it from Westminster, Eire, the EEC or the United States — will not be tolerated. Political power will be returned to where it rightfully belongs: the hands of the people.

War will be declared on all fronts against the IRA, spearheaded by a new armed citizens militia.

In place of the failed systems of Capitalism and State Socialism, we will establish a Community Benefit Nation. The economy will be based on workers' co-operatives and small family farms and businesses (operating alongside some State-owned large-scale industry). A safe home market for our own products will be secured by a defensive wall of tariffs on imports.

In short, we will establish an economy of the people, not of the banker or the bureaucrat. We will build an Ulster of the people, by the people, for the people. We will build a beautiful, proud and free Nation of tomorrow, on the ruins and debris of today.

A National Revolutionary Ulster can and will be born, survive and prosper, becoming a Nation fit for our children to grow up in. Will you fight with us for this New Ulster — or will you opt for the will 'o' the wisp of total integration, or even total surrender to our enemies? The choice is yours — and it must be made soon!

SELF DETERMINATION FOR THE ULSTER NATION

"INSTANT" is the word which sums up the ethics of today's consumer society. It is implanted in the minds of millions of people as the ultimate good. Instant "fun" from the TV. Instant "culture" from the pop video. Instant "earnings" from Stock Exchange gambling. You don't even have to leave your armchair — you can do it all by pushing a few buttons.

This instant consumer society has infected millions of our people with the false notion that you can get something worthwhile without sacrifice, and that nothing is really worth working for. The National Front stands against this deadly mental paralysis.

We believe that worthwhile things and a healthy society can only be achieved through dedication and sacrifice. We believe that the future survival of the British peoples demands the creation of a new kind of Man — A man who does not demand instant satisfaction, but who measures his worth in terms of his contribution to the life of the folk community.

LONG STRUGGLE

We welcome the fact that this involves a long and hard struggle against State repression and popular apathy, for this struggle strengthens our militants and our movement.

The National Revolutionary is like a mountain climber, whose only goal is to reach the peak whatever the cost. And like the mountain climber, what joy is there in reaching the summit if all you have to do is to push a button and be transported without effort to any remote mountain peak? The achievement of getting to the top would be so devalued that we could no longer understand the glory of the scene before us.

We are small in numbers now, but the steep mountain path to National Freedom beckons us. We may briefly stop and glance back to get our bearings, but we must always look forward towards the sunlit uplands towards which our movement strives.

Our seek the pure air of a healthy folk community, where everyone can be involved in running their own lives — where everyone is an active member of society. We will leave below us the filth and squalor of the consumer society.

PRIDE AND HOPE

We have no "instant" success to offer; no material gains to be won; no cheap fame on the box. But we do offer the pride of doing what is right. And we offer hope to a lost people.

More than that, we offer the chance to get involved and to help build a new nation. We intend to build a society based on freedom and social justice — a society where there is opportunity for all, but privilege for none.

The National Front believes that to be involved in the struggle for these ideals in the only thing which can give real meaning and dignity to life in today's disjointed consumer nightmare.

Where do you stand? Will you be one of the passive millions slumped in front of the latest TV soap — or will you put pride and purpose back into your life by getting involved in our great struggle?
